

Visions

The "Vision"-Group does a video about a man who has to make a decision after he lost his job. Either he decides to drink to forget his problems and because of this negative influence his son who became a boss of an American military force will destroy the world or he decides to live with his problem and help his son to build up a better future.